with Peter Jackson

I'm Peter, one other half of Keynote Ministries! I was born in Birmingham and as a result of an illness whilst still a toddler, I became blind. I was educated at a school for blind children, where I also learnt to play the piano. I first heard about the love of Jesus from my primary teacher who taught me to read and write braille. She also encouraged me to memorize Scripture, but as the years went by, I cherished an ambition to use my ability to play the piano in show business. However, I went to training college, and met some folk of my own age who had a living relationship with Jesus Christ. And, just a week before my eighteenth birthday, I came into that wonderful relationship too.

Peter Jackson

Peter is a wonderful pianist and speaker – we know because this is his second visit to us. Don't miss what promises to be a very special weekend.
